

City of East Helena Planning Board Vacancies

The City of East Helena is currently looking for residents interested in joining the City's Planning Board. The City's Planning Board is a seven member board that develops and updates the Growth Policy as well as reviews and approves subdivision applications. City of East Helena residents that are interested in joining the Planning Board are encouraged to fill out and submit an application form at City Hall, 306 E. Main Street in East Helena, or call the City for more information at 227-5321. Planning Board applications are available on the Zoning/Planning Board page of the City's website: easthelenamt.us.